

expressions of hope

A HEARTFELT THANK YOU to the Rush Creek Bible Church family for supporting the “Teachers Helping Teachers” team as we prepare for our trip to Zambia this summer. It has been very humbling to receive so much financial backing; so many prayers and interest in our endeavors.

We are a group of eight experienced teachers who, in Zambia, will be able to visit schools, present teacher training seminars to the Zambian teachers, demonstrate our love for the Lord by our actions and have the opportunity to develop cross-cultural relationships. In the seminars we will provide a variety of ideas and teaching techniques for the Zambian teachers

Follow my example — as I follow the example of Christ.

Teachers

HELPING TEACHERS

faith in Proverbs 3:5. “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding.” Phil has since passed on to glory, but the Lord has been gracious to me in allowing this chance to once again serve in Africa.

I would request your prayers for our team’s in the areas of language arts, math, English as a second language, Bible story instruction and the Children and Worship Sunday School curriculum.

Several years ago, my husband, Phil and I, had the opportunity to take a sabbatical leave from public school teaching and serve as short term missionaries for a year in the Congo, Africa. That experience was life changing and solidifies my health, travel safety, cultural adaptation, success in our seminars and that we practice the presence of God daily. We are going to serve and to share, and to God be the glory.

TEACHERS HELPING TEACHERS:

Betty Barber (contributing author), Sherry Leyendecker, Jim Moore, Melanie Sabin, Linda Siler, Leon Slagter, Sheryl Stone, and Sue Thomasma.